IMPORTANT QUESTIONS – WE NEED YOUR ANSWERS!

Are you planning to go to college? Yes____ No____ (Your answer has no influence on your registration)

What are three things you hope to learn from EDGE?

We will be playing a game throughout the weekend – to prepare for that, we need your answer to this question “What is one interesting fact or unique characteristic about you that most people would not know?”

---

“During lunch at the EDGE Conference, you will have the opportunity to hear from former 4-H members who have now entered the workforce and have interesting careers. Wonder how they did that or how they like their present work? Write a question you want them to answer during the panel discussion :

PROGRAM POLICIES

All participants, both 4-H and non-4-H members, at the 4-H EDGE Weekend must send in a 4-H Program Participant Permission, Agreement and Health (PPPAH) form and a University Photo Release form with their registration. These are available on the 4-H EDGE website to be downloaded and sent in with the registration form or will be sent with the registration form if it is sent from the county office. In addition to the standard 4-H rules and agreements, parents and participants should be aware of the following 4-H EDGE policies....

- Participants will be assigned a double occupancy room in the residence hall and should stay in their assigned room. The University requires that we know where each participant is staying.
- Participants are responsible for any damages which occur to the room during their stay.
- Any disturbance or emergencies should be reported to a chaperone or night supervisor.
- Participants must be in the dormitory at the end of the last evening activity, lights out at 11:15 p.m.
- 4-H appropriate clothing required at all times-dress code information will be included in your participant packet
- Participants should stay in areas where activities are taking place. Do NOT leave any activity without notifying a chaperone.
- Any medications needed by youth during the weekend will be given to the camp nurse at registration. She will administer doses as needed throughout the weekend.
- A lost key can have a fee up to $50.00. Participants agree to pay this fee should they lose their room/building keys.

I have read and agree to abide by the policies outlined above - Parent and Participant should each sign below
